This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

ON Monday, September 3, William A. Larned, for the seventh time, won the Singles Championship of the United States, thus equalled the hitherto unapproached record of R. D. Sears and proving himself still the Peerless American expert.

His impressive victory over the challenger, Maurice E. McLaughlin, the fine player from the Pacific coast, ended the most remarkable tournament ever held in this country, a meeting having a huge record-breaking list, filled with numerous great contests, brilliant tennis, splendid management,—and unspeakably bad weather.

A full fortnight, including four consecutive days of rain and wet courts and several more when a few matches were played in spite of almost impossible conditions, was needed to settle the question of who would be the 1911 champion.

The draw—202, another record—found the leading experts pretty well scattered in the four quarters, with the luck of the draw slightly favoring Bundy, and that of the play aiding McLoughlin, for Pell defaulted to him and Washburn unexpectedly put out the man generally conceded to be the most likely to bother him, namely R. D. Little.

The record for attendance was also smashed to smithereens, every grandstand seat for the whole tourney being sold before the opening.

The committee also made a record, running matters with machine-like precision until only sixteen players remained, and E. Pluvius put an end to play for the better—or worse—part of a week. Huge galleries were the rule, and on the day of the Challenge Match every possible point of vantage, even the neighboring ridge pole, was occupied.

Briefly following down the records of the leading half dozen players we find that McLoughlin met his first ranking player in Dabney, and the latter by aggressive play succeeded in forcing one set to deuce, though he could not capture one.

C. P. Gardner, Jr., met a like fate at the hands of the auburn-haired crack, but Washburn, the seventeen-year old marvel, who put the internationalist, R. D. Little, out of the running, fell an easy victim.

Touchard, who had taken the measure of R. H. Palmer and C. R. Gardner on the way, was met in the Semi-Finals and overcome rather easily, for the erratically brilliant New Yorker was off his game and try as he would couldn't get started.

This brought McLoughlin to the Finals, where he met Beals C. Wright. It was the ex-champions' first Singles tournament of the season, but he had succeeded in fighting his way to the Finals through a difficult draw displaying at times much of his former power. His first three matches were won in quick order, and although he lost a set to the clever young English player, Andrews, he was never in danger. In the sixth round he met and just defeated N. W. Niles, who, playing the greatest game of his career, all but turned the trick, two unnecessary errors really proving his undoing. Niles had previously taken the measure of M. H. Long in four sets.

In the Semi-Finals Wright met and smothered his vanquisher of 1910, T. C. Bundy of San Francisco. The court was a mire and this unquestionably threw the little Westerner off his game. Wright played carefully and adapted his game to the exigencies of the occasion, and won easily in straight sets. Four days of rain and wet courts intervened, and when the Finals were played on Saturday, September 1, Wright was much below the form he had previously shown and all his play lacked sting and aggressiveness. McLoughlin played like a whirlwind, sacrificing safety to dash and abandon, charging the net at every opening and volleying like one possessed, breaking the strings in five rackets during the match and earning sixty-eight points to Wright's twenty-nine.

Other notable matches were those between Palmer and Ames, Little and Behr, a terrifically hard hitting five-set battle; Jones and Bull, Washburn and Little, in which the schoolboy downed the Internationalist in five long sets, playing like a machine; and Church against Bundy, in which the other schoolboy crack nearly downed the other internationalist in five sets on the next court.

The Challenge Match, although less of a thrilling contest than a number of the other matches was one of the most perfect exhibitions ever seen. McLoughlin played remarkably and tried everything in his power, but was unable to break the master's perfect defence, namely his almost superhuman attack.

Larned's ground strokes were perfect and when he went to the net, which was seldom, he surpassed his brilliant rival in deadly precision. In every respect the champion's play was well nigh perfection. In spite of his straight set defeat McLoughlin showed a marked improvement in his play over last year's, and demonstrated that he is one of the greatest players in the world.

The scores:

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Challenge Match between the four times champions, H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, and the new combination, R. D. Little and G. F. Touchard, occurred as an adjunct to the National Championship tournament at Newport, on Tuesday, August 22, and resulted in a sweeping victory for the new comers, the famous team of champions winning only one set. This was in part due to the fact that Hackett and Alexander were individually and as a team sadly out of practise and in poor shape, entering the match with the avowed intention to make it their last if defeated, and even more to the sustained power and brilliancy of the play of Little and Touchard.

This team—a chance affair at the start—earned the right to be set down as one of the few "great" combinations in the history of Doubles in America going through a hard season with only one defeat and defeating numerous strong combinations brilliantly.

The Challenge Match was a thrilling contest, replete with tremendously hard hitting, marvelous gets and spectacular "gets," and will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to witness it. The second set, which was finally won after a nerve racking battle, by the older champions at 15-13, was especially noteworthy. All four made many errors, Alexander offending in particular, but offset these with the most amazingly spectacular plays imaginable:

First Set

Little and Touchard, 7; Hackett and Alexander, 5.

Second Set

Little and Touchard 13; Hackett and Alexander, 15.

Third Set

Little and Touchard, 6; Hackett and Alexander, 2.

PRELIMINARY NATIONAL DOUBLES

THE winners of the four sectional tournaments, Little and Touchard, from the East, the Doyle brothers from the South, Bull and Martin from the Middle West, and McLoughlin and Bundy from the Pacific Coast, met in a titanic struggle on the courts of the Owentsia Club, Chicago, Ill., on August 1 and 2, to settle which team should have the honor of challenging Hackett and Alexander at Newport for their titles as National Doubles champions.

The luck of the draw brought the two strongest contenders, McLoughlin and Bundy, and Little and Touchard together in the first round, and the biggest gallery in the history of the club gathered to witness the memorable battle. A wonderful contest it was indeed, the Eastern stars and National-champions-to-be, emerging victorious only after 5 of the hardest fought and closest sets imaginable, the last going to 18 games and keeping the gallery at a fever point.

This match practically settled the question of supremacy, although the Doyles, C. B. and H. E., who had won rather easily from Bull and Martin, unexpectedly captured two sets from the favorites. After winning the first handily, Little and Touchard let up a bit and the Doyles assumed the aggressive, gained the net repeatedly and playing finished tennis won the second, 6-4.

The East won the third set with a burst of speed, but beautiful lobbing by their opponents so demoralized them in the fourth that the South were able to win it, 6-1, and so even up. Again Little and Touchard put on full steam and by the speediest kind of playing won the final set, 6-3.

R. D. Little and G. F. Touchard beat T. C. Bundy and M. E. McLoughlin, 6-4, 6-4, 7-9, 3-6, 10-8.

C. B. and H. E. Doyle beat C. M. Bull, Jr., and H. C. Martin, 6-3, 8-6, 6-1.

R. D. Little and G. F. Touchard beat C. B. and H. E. Doyle, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3.

NATIONAL CLAY COURT CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Second Annual Clay Court Championship of the United States ended with a new victor wearing the crown, Walter T. Hayes of Chicago, achieving the title of National champion through the default of Melville H. Long, the first winner.

WALTER T. HAYES
Clay Court Champion

Y. H. Winston and H. G. Whitehead of Norfolk, Va., won the Doubles titles over 59 other teams.

The entry list in Singles comprised 120 clay court players from 16 states and included practically all the leading experts who like a hard rather than a turf court, the grass court players being generally conspicuous by their absence.

Hayes was at his best after two easy matches at the outset, defeating in succession Ray Branson, W. C. Brodix, Joe Armstrong, the University of Minnesota champion, H. J. Rendall (who had vanquished Whitehead and Harvey MacQuiston) and finally Percy Siverd of Pittsburg. In this last match which was expected to be a battle royal, Hayes simply overwhelmed his opponent, allowing him but three games in the last two sets, and winning, 7-5, 6-2, 6-1, his drives having tremendous pace and splendid accuracy.

The Southern combination of Winston and Whitehead were strong enough to come through in the Doubles winning an unusual sort of a contest from the MacQuiston brothers in the finals, in which the losers won two more games than their successful rivals and were once within one point of the match only to lose on a questionable decision.

In the Challenge Match Hayes and Anderson were vanquished in four sets, the veteran, Anderson, being continually played by his younger opponents.

The tournament was a success in every particular, with good management, many exciting matches both in Singles and Doubles, big galleries to witness them, visiting players being royally entertained, made as usual, the Omaha Field Club Tournament one of the best held in the West.

British Isles vs. America
C. P. DIXON AND A. E. BEAMISH vs. R. D. LITTLE AND T. C. BUNDY
Courts West Side Tennis Club, New York

DAVIS CUP MATCHES

AMERICA VS. BRITISH ISLES

Preliminaries

ALTHOUGH America's International team, William A. Larned, Maurice E. McLoughlin, T. C. Bundy and R. D. Little, defeated the English representatives, C. P. Dixon, A. H. Lowe and A. E. Beamish, four matches to one and thus gained for the country the right to challenge the Australians in the finals, the contest was by no means as one-sided as the score would seem to indicate.

We won all the Singles matches to be sure, but lost a set in each, and in two of the four it seemed almost certain that the visitors would be victorious, and Larned and McLoughlin were forced to extend themselves to the limit to turn the tide and pluck victory out of defeat.

The English team got their only win in the Doubles, Dixon and Beamish giving a grand exhibition of team work and sound Doubles play and simply outplayed Bundy and Little, who did not seem to work well as a Doubles team, it being their first match.

The matches were played at the West Side Tennis Club, New York City, September 9, 11 and 12, on especially constructed courts, before a large and enthusiastic gallery.

The arrangements were of the best and the committee in charge deserved every credit.

The Scores:

Saturday, September 9.—W. A. Larned (America) beat C. P. Dixon (Great Britain), 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5; M. E. McLoughlin (America) beat A. H. Lowe (Great Britain), 8-6, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

Monday, September 11.—C. P. Dixon and A. E. Beamish (Great Britain) beat R. D. Little and T. C. Bundy (America), 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

AMERICAN TEAM
Welcomed to Christchurch, New Zealand, by the Mayor

AMERICA VS. AUSTRALASIA

Finals

America suffered an overwhelming and wholly unexpected defeat in the final round of the Davis Cup contests this year, the holders of the International Trophy making a clean sweep of the series and this against our strongest team.

When Wm. A. Larned of Summit, N. J., Beals C. Wright of Boston, Mass., and Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, Cal., departed for Christchurch, New Zealand, in quest of the cup, it was generally regarded that America would be successful in her third attempt to regain the trophy from the Australians, especially as the "Great" Brookes did not have his former tried and trusted helper, Anthony F. Wilding, as a co-defender, and was obliged to depend on supposedly inferior assistants, Heath and Dunlop.

Yet due partly to the splendid manner in which these last named players acquitted themselves and partly to an unfortunate disability on the part of Wm. Larned, the American Captain, the strong favorites were decisively beaten, Larned losing to Heath and Wright to Brookes on the first day, Wright and McLaughlin being vanquished in Doubles by Brookes and Dunlop on the second, and McLoughlin falling a victim to the Australian leader on the third. The fifth match was won by the defenders by default, Wright being unable to play on the final day.

The challengers had a delightful trip across the Pacific and landed in New Zealand in splendid condition. There everything possible was done for their comfort, excellent courts were open to them for practice and several of the leading players lent their aid in rounding the Americans into shape. They were soon in fine fettle, Wright in particular being so well "on" his game that Larned selected him in preference to McLoughlin to play the second Singles. The matches were scheduled to begin Friday, December 29, but three days' heavy rain necessitated their postponement till Monday, January 1. The delay and severe weather had been most disastrous, causing Larned to suffer a bad attack of rheumatism in the left ankle and right elbow—his two weak spots. After a long consideration he decided to chance a meeting with Heath rather than to substitute McLoughlin, in the hope that even handicapped as he was, he might win, and fearing a disastrous psychological effect on the team if he withdrew at the last moment.

AMERICAN TEAM

Beals C. Wright | William A. Larned | Maurice E. McLoughlin

FIRST DAY

Brooks vs. Wright

The meeting of these two left handed experts and old rivals produced a match nearly as great as their previous encounters, but with a different ending. The great Australian was at his best, playing like a machine and with wonderful accuracy throughout. Wright realized that to break through that almost impregnable defence, and gain a victory would require his utmost exertions, and he spared himself not a whit. Perhaps never has he played more earnestly and desperately, going after every chance and making almost impossible returns. The second set was a terrific contest, but the Boston player, in order to win it, used up so much energy and strength that fight as he would, he could not maintain the pace and Brookes forged steadily ahead to victory. The score, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Heath vs. Larned

The American champion started well winning the opening set from the New Zealander, 6-2, without much difficulty, the play being rather slow and conservative, but with the second, the visitor's troubles began. Nothing went right and Heath ran out five straight games and set, 6-1. This loss coupled with his physical disability so completely upset Larned that instead of improving, his play became more uncertain, and Heath, displaying sound careful tennis, quickly went through the match, winning, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4, 6-1.

The Doubles

In spite of two victories to Australia's credit, the cup was not yet won nor lost, and a huge crowd gathered to see Brookes and Heath play Wright and McLoughlin. They were well repaid, for the match was a bitterly fought even contest, and the tennis of the highest order. McLoughlin's dazzling play in particular caught the public fancy and he was straightway dubbed the "California Comet." The defenders won the first set 6-4, due to the failure of Wright to win two of his service games. The Americans evened up with the second 7-5, McLoughlin playing like a demon and serving with almost unparalled brilliancy. The third set was lost by the invaders at the same score, again owing to Wright's loss of a service game and the same is true of the fourth and final set, for the Boston star was just enough below his best game, due to the exhausting match of the previous day, to fail to hold his own. Score, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5, 6-4.

THIRD DAY

Wright was in no shape to play on the third day, and as the cup was lost defaulted to Heath.

Larned's condition was not improved, and after much discussion and the production of a doctor's certificate, he was allowed to substitute McLoughlin for himself against Brookes. The young western star justified his choice and the match which resulted was by all odds the most memorable of the meeting, going to five long brilliantly fought sets. McLoughlin served and drove with tremendous speed, and up to the final set he seemed absolutely fresh and untiring and outscored Brookes for earned aces in three of the five sets, and in all 153 to 148 each winning 24 games. It was a remarkable match for the young American and as near a victory as could well be imagined. Score, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

WOMEN'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

MISS Hazel Hotchkiss of San Francisco is still the National woman champion. On Saturday, June 17, she successfully defended her high position against the splendid attack of her fellow stateswoman, Miss Florence Sutton of Los Angeles in one of the most bitterly fought and closest battles which has ever taken place in the "Nationals."

MISS HAZEL HOTCHKISS
Lady Champion

Thus California monopolized the event, especially as Miss Hotchkiss won the Women's Doubles with Miss Eleanora Sears of Boston as her partner, and the Mixed Doubles with Wallace F. Johnson—a threefold victory for the dashing young Pacific Coast star.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Tournament was held on the perfect turf courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martins as usual and was a record meeting with nothing but a little rain to mar it.

The draw contained such players as Miss Dorothy Green, Miss Bunce of New York, Miss Wagner of New York, Miss Browning, Miss Moyes, the Canadian champion, and Miss Eleanora Sears. The latter went through her half with little opposition and met Miss Sutton in the final round, there falling a victim to the masterly play of the younger sister of "May" Sutton in two short sets, 6-2, 6-1.

Miss Sears' game was not up to her best and she seemed disinclined to try her hardest.

The Challenge match was a wonderful contest, Miss Sutton finally capturing the first set, 10-8, but the champion retaliated, winning the second, 6-1, taking six games in succession, with the loss of but 8 points.

In the third, games alternated brilliantly, and once Miss Sutton led 6-5 and 40-30, only to be overhauled and finally beat at 9-7.

In the Doubles Miss Hotchkiss and Miss Sears met Miss Sutton and Miss Green in the finals and another hot struggle ensued, the champion and her partner eventually winning at 7.42 p. m., 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

The other finalists in the Mixed Doubles were Miss Wildey and H. M. Tilden, but they were unable to win a set from Miss Hotchkiss and Johnson, although the latter was in poor form and the champion had to do the lion's share of the work.

In the Men's Event Tilden won over Thayer in the closing round.

LONGWOOD BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP

THE name "Larned" is still synonomous with "Longwood Singles champion," although the title holder is not Wm. A., the twelve times winner of this classic event, but Edward P., younger brother of the National champion. The latter came up from Mexico, won his way through the large field and "walked" into the second most important Championship in the United States, his brother joyfully defaulting his title as he had done once before. Thus the tournament was robbed of its chief and crowning glory, but in spite of this fact it has taken its place as perhaps the greatest of all the memorable series.

EDWIN P. LARNED
Winner of Tournament

This Twenty-first Annual Event held on the perfect turf courts of the Longwood Cricket Club, July 17-26, furnished a series of thrilling contests and seldom surpassed, and although E. P. Larned emerged in a blaze of glory, the real hero of the meeting was the brilliant Touchard and not "the erratic" this time, but the stubbornly fighting general who met and defeated in quick succession such stars as Watson, Niles, Washburn, McLoughlin and Long. It is scarcely surprising that wearied in body and mind by these repeated tremendous battles, he succumbed to the powerful and unexpectedly brilliant attack of Larned, whose road to the finals had been a path of roses, except for one match, that with the fast improving Boston crack, R. D. Bishop.

Touchard's memorable battles, as set down above, were by no means the only unusual contests in the tournay. Each day had its share. On the first Little defeated Harris, and Seaver, J. O. Ames. On the second Long overcame C. R. Gardner; Niles put out Little in two long and hard fought sets, and Bishop defeated G. P. Gardner, Jr. The third Hall won from Whitney, McLoughlin downed Pell in a great five-set contest in which the tall New Yorker more than held his own with the Internationalist up to the final set, when General weariness came to the latter's aid. Dabney won from the veteran "Jed" Jones, and Touchard aided by Dame Fortune started on his road to fame, defeating Niles, when the latter injured his weak ankle again at a time when he was leading comfortably and playing phenomenal tennis. The next day Long won from Hall, Touchard from the schoolboy star, Washburn; McLoughlin beat Seaver, and Bishop, Inman.

The fifth was replete with exceptional contests, Long overcoming the ex-champion, Clothier, whose play was, however, but a shadow of itself, due to his illness in 1910. Touchard's wonderful recoveries proved the downfall of McLoughlin. Bishop won a gruelling contest from Dabney, and Larned beat Mahan.

The semi-finals brought Touchard and Long, and Larned and Bishop together, and the first named won in straight sets, but only by a great display of tactics, his change of pace and soft stroking completely upsetting Long. Larned barely pulled out a win over the Boston crack in a hard hitting match which went to the full quota of sets. In the finish Larned surpassed himself and approached in every respect except control of his forehand drive, the standard of his famous brother. He charged the net at every point and volleyed wonderfully and these tactics put the wearied Touchard on the defence and kept him there. Try as he would the latter could not turn the tide in his favor, and although a desperate spurt gave him the second set the other three went almost easily to Larned, who thereby became the new champion.

No story of the tournament would be complete without a word of appreciation for the magnificent work of the committee who, as usual, ran matters in a manner to serve as an example and model for all others.

EASTERN DOUBLES

THE competition to select the team which should represent the East in the preliminary Doubles at Chicago was held as usual in conjunction with the Longwood Bowl Singles during the week of July 17, and resulted in a brilliant victory for the National Double champions-to-be, Little and Touchard. Several other strong teams were entered but, although the star New York combination met stiff opposition in two matches, they finally rose to the occasion in each and by the speediest and most spectacular play smashed out a victory. Starting poorly and erratically they nearly lost to the dashing play of Dabney and G. P. Gardner, not finding themselves till the fifth set, and in the match against Gates and Gates they again began weakly, but in their third round contest with Long and Gardner, who were out with an avowed purpose of capturing this meeting, they began to strike their real gait and won a spectacular five-set battle. Clothier and Larned fell before their aggressive attack in straight sets, and the other finalists, Boston's hopes, Wright and Niles, met a like fate. In this match, Wright, who had played very badly in their earlier contests, rose to something approaching his old form, but Niles, who had been carrying the team along almost unaided, slumped hopelessly and netted three out of every four balls, so the match was scarcely a contest.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE MIDDLE STATES

THROUGH a regrettable default on the part of the title holder N. W. Niles, who after winning the first set, 9-7, sprained his ankle so severely that he was forced to retire and relinquish his honors, W. Merrill Hall of New York became the new Middle States champion.

Hall made a fine showing during the tournament, defeating Dean Mathey and R. A. Holden, Jr., who was regarded as the logical winner, having disposed of E. P. Larned in the semi-final round, and his aggressive play was forcing Niles to exert himself to the limit when the accident put an end to the contest.

In the semi-finals Holden defeated Larned, and Hall got by Mathey after losing the first set and trailing 1-4 on the second, and in the finals Hall surprised every one by overcoming Holden in straight sets, 6-4, 7-5, 9-7.

The Doubles also produced many defaults and several upsets. Thus the Gates brothers most unexpectedly won from Clothier and E. P. Larned, only to lose to Torrance and Hinck in the semi-finals, which team by defeating Bull and Martin in the finals, became the challengers.

They were unable to make much headway against the champions, Hackett and Alexander, whose more finished play, in spite of lack of practise, gave them a 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 victory.

As was expected, the National woman champion, Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, captured the ladies' title, defeating Miss Edith Rotch of Boston in the finals, although the latter gave her a surprisingly good contest, and Mrs. Edward L. Raymond, better known as Miss Louise Hammond, in the challenge round easily 6-2, 6-2. Miss Hotchkiss and Gardner easily won the Mixed Doubles.

SOUTHAMPTON TOURNAMENT

IT was West vs. West at Southampton, L. I., this year, for although the draw included a notable array of tennis experts, T. C. Bundy of Los Angeles, and M. H. Long of San Francisco, clashed in the final round.

Play started on August 14 on grass courts of the Meadow Club and lasted five days. Long, defeated with some difficulty, Schwengers, the Canadian crack, Tifft, Lyon, G. P. Gardner, Jr., and Pell.

Bundy won from Harris by default; Ewing, Mahan, Tallant, Behr and Long, so until the semi-finals were reached the Pacific star really had an easy row to hoe, and the eastern stars were killing each other off like the Killkaney cats.

Behr made the best showing since 1906, defeating Inman, Clothier, Jones and W. F. Johnson, and getting a set from Bundy. The last named defeated Long decisively, outplaying him at every point. The two Larneds won the Doubles from Fincke and Watson, and Miss Marion Fenno and Fincke won the Mixed Doubles.

LAWN TENNIS IN THE SOUTH

SOUTHERN CHAMPIONSHIP

ANOTHER two-fold victory was won by Conrad B. Doyle of Washington, D. C., in the Southern States Championship tournament held at Atlanta, Ga., as usual, during the week of July 3. He easily defended his title in Singles, winning over Carleton Smith, a local player, in straight sets and with his brother Harold annexing the Doubles quite as easily.

Smith showed a marked improvement over previous seasons, his hard back court drives carrying him through the "all comers" without the loss of a set, but Doyle's skilful generalship enabled him to win 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

The Doubles event had an added interest in that the winners were to represent the South in the Preliminary National Doubles at Chicago.

Accordingly the Doyle brothers had to play through and they once more proved that they are in a class by themselves in the Southland, winning the championship without the loss of a set. B. M. Grant and E. V. Carter, Jr., the Southern Intercollegiate champion, and W. A. Fleet paired with John T. Bailey, the Oklahoma champion, made strong well balanced teams, but not good enough to seriously menace the winners' progress.

WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Twenty-fourth Annual, and by all odds one of the best Western Championship tournaments, was held as usual at the attractive Onwentsia Club of Lake Forest, Chicago, on July 22 and days following. Everything conspired to make the meeting a huge social and athletic success and great credit is due to the energetic and capable committee, Messrs. Everts, Wrenn, Ashcraft and Neely, and entertainment committee, Messrs. Carpenter, president of the club, and Chatfield-Taylor.

The entry list, 71 in numbers, and 34 teams in Doubles, included many players of note, the greatest, of course, being Maurice E. McLoughlin, who had a fairly easily draw, and went into the finals without really exerting himself. There he met and outclassed Hayes, the Illinois State champion, winning 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

During the earlier rounds a number of splendid contests resulted from the encounters between McLoughlin and Winston, Bull and Heath Byford, Waidner and Whitehead, Church and Ludke, Waidner and Hayes, and Waidner and Bull.

McLoughlin challenged his Doubles partner, Thomas C. Bundy, the 1910 champion, and wrested the title from him in a fast spectacular four-set match.

The Doubles event was a corker from start to finish, the finals being a battle royal between Bull and Martin, the eventual winners, and Mathey and Church. In the fifth set games alternated from 5 all, the older team at last running it out at 9-7.

Miss Hazel Hotchkiss scored her usual two-fold victory in the women's events, defeating Miss Neely in Singles, and with her winning the Doubles.

The preliminary Doubles events by representative teams of the East, South, Middle West and California, following the Western Championship on the same courts, and from which meeting all the matches proved most interesting, the Eastern team winning. The scores and particulars of which can be found elsewhere in the guide.

LAWN TENNIS AT PITTSBURGH, PA.

THE game of lawn tennis has taken a jump at Pittsburgh within the past few years and has become one of the most popular outdoor pastimes brought about by the older players and lovers of the game, Messrs. Charles Garland, C. L. Childs, Harry Seymour, J. G. Crookston, E. M. Byers, and the forming of the Allegheny Country Tennis Association, composed of a membership of twelve clubs.

During the past season many tournaments of interest took place, two in particular, in which the lady champions took part. The first tournament was under the auspices of the Allegheny County Tennis Association in which Miss Hotchkiss, Miss Florence Sutton, Miss Moyes, Miss Bunce and all the best lady and men players of Pittsburgh took part and proved a most successful one. The finals were played off on a Saturday before a large gallery, Miss Hotchkiss winning the Ladies' Singles, defeating Miss Florence Sutton; Miss Hotchkiss and Percy Siverd winning the Mixed Doubles over Miss Sutton and Rev. Rendall, while the Ladies' Doubles were won by Miss Hotckkiss and Miss Bunce.

The second event took place during the week of September 16, when a Special Invitation Tournament was held by the Pittsburgh Athletic Association on its new clay courts, the occasion being the projected visit of those three expert players, the Misses May and Florence Sutton and Miss Hazel Hotckhiss. As it turned out, only the Misses Sutton came, Miss Hotchkiss having injured her foot had been forced to abstain from playing for a time. This was a great disappointment to the Pittsburgh people, who looked forward to seeing some extra fine playing by these lady champions. The grand playing of Miss May Sutton with her terrific forehand strokes greatly pleased the gallery.

And as Pittsburgh has been given the Clay Court Championship for 1912, nothing will be neglected to make it a success under the watchful eye of Harry Seymour and his committee. It will be played on the courts of the Pittsburgh Athletic Association, June 22 and following days.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The expected happened in the twenty-third contest for the Singles Championship of the Western Pennsylvania Tournament, when Percy D. Siverd of Pittsburgh successfully defended his title against the attack of J. L. Cote, a Yale player, and thus gained permanent possession of the Grogan trophy.

The tournament started on Tuesday, July 11, on the courts of the Pittsburgh Golf Club, with 35 entries in Singles, Cote meeting and beating the Rev. H. J. Rendall in the finals, 12-10, 6-3, 9-7, and being defeated by P. D. Siverd, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 in the challenge round.

Following is a list of the winners of the Championship since its inception:

THIS invitation tournament grows with interest each year. INTER MOUNTAIN CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Seventh Annual Tennis Tournament of the Inter-Mountain Lawn Tennis Association for Championship of Colorado, Idaho, Wyoming and Utah, was held at the Salt Lake City Country Club, August 28 to September 4.

The call for this tournament brought out 50 entries for Gentlemen's Singles, and 20 entries for Doubles. The hardest fought matches of the tournament took place in the final rounds in both events. Five sets were necessary to determine the champions in each event.

F. T. Roberts won in the Singles from E. M. Garnett, 6-4, 0-6, 6-0, 7-5, 8-6. This gave Mr. Roberts the right to challenge T. C. Bundy of Los Angeles, who was the champion of the Inter-Mountain Tournament for 1910, and holder of the Salisbury Challenge Cup. Mr. Bundy did not appear to defend his title. The Salisbury Challenge Cup is to become the property of the first player who wins it three times. Mr. Bundy and Mr. Roberts now has each won this cup once.

In the finals in the Double round S. R. Neel, the former National champion in Doubles, was paired with James Ingebretsen, against D. A. McGilvray of Los Angeles, former Pacific Coast expert, and O. J. Salisbury, former state champion of Utah. Neel and Ingebretsen won by the following score, 6-4, 6-3, 7-9, 6-1.

T. C. Bundy and T. Hendricks of Los Angeles did not appear to defend their title to the Inter-Mountain Championship Doubles.

A program of general entertainment for players and their guests during the tournament formed some of the most enjoyable features of the week, as it has been the aim of the managers of this tournament to provide good times for all guests, and, particularly soothe the feelings of the losers in the tournament.

In the Ladies' Singles, Miss Kate Williams successfully defended her title in the challenge round by defeating Miss Margaret Hutchinson 6-4, 6-4.

Mrs. Walker Salisbury and Mrs. Frank Judge won the Championship in Ladies' Doubles.

A new tennis club is being formed in Salt Lake with the courts near to the business center of the city, with a view toward encouraging more playing during the summer months. It is the plan to have future tournaments held on the new courts.

At a meeting of the association the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Officers: O. J. Salisbury, president; S. A. Whitney, vice-president; E. M. Garnett, secretary and treasurer.

Committee on Arrangements: S. R. Neel, Dr. Jensen, T. G. Griffin, W. W. McLeod, Judge Geo. Armstrong, Jas. Ingebretsen, Frank Moore.

The Inter-Mountain Tennis Tournament is an open tournament, and it is hoped that all players will avail themselves of the opportunity to enter this tournament, as the committee on arrangements assures them a most cordial welcome.

All communications regarding tournaments and entries should be addressed to E. M. Garnett, secretary and treasurer of the Inter-Mountain Lawn Tennis Association, Salt Lake City, Utah.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Twenty-first Annual Championship of the Pacific Northwest was held during the week of August 7, at Tacoma, Washington, and the presence of Miss May Sutton served as a star drawing card and made the event a great success. LAWN TENNIS IN CUBA

THIS year has awakened the interest for tennis among the Cubans and various clubs are being organized so as to participate in the National Championship, at the Vedado Tennis Club, Habana.

The Vedado Tennis Club, the veterans of the game, will soon move into their new $60,000 club house. The new location gives them ten courts, unhampered by buildings or trees. The grounds are situated by the sea, which will give the members swimming and boating facilities. In appointments, the new club house will be the equal of any of its kind in the states.

In Guanabacoa, a suburb of Habana, a new club has come into life—The Guanabacoa Tennis Club.

This club is now playing a series of games with 'El Jesus del Monte Tennis Club of Habana. A silver trophy goes to the winner.

The following clubs hold yearly competitions, but no data is at hand at this writing.

Liceo Tennis Club, Matanzas.
Marianao Tennis Club, Marianao.
Royal Bank of Canada Club, Habana.
Heredia Tennis Club, Santiago de Cuba.

The climate of Cuba is delightful for tennis, especially during the winter months.

TENNIS IN HAWAII

NEVER before has so much tennis been played in Hawaii than during the past year. It seemed that about all the time a tournament was in progress, for tennis is played all the year in the Islands.

The Ladies' Championships were as usual played during the month of May and brought out a full entry list from Honolulu, though very few from the other Islands or outlying districts. The playing throughout was better than the average. A. M. Nowell won the Singles by consistent playing, but in the challenge round was rather easily defeated in straight sets by A. L. Castle, the Territorial champion. Paired with Castle, however, he won the Doubles, and with Mrs. Graham, the Mixed Doubles. There were no Ladies' Doubles or Singles, the ladies apparently taking but little interest in tournament play.

Outside of the championships, several handicap events were played, the most notable being the Hall and Castle Cups. These brought out even a larger entry list than the Championships. The Hall Cup is open to any one in the Islands and is played for twice a year. In the spring it was won by A. L. Castle from minus fifteen, but in the fall his penalty was increased and he was defeated by young Eklund from Ewa Plantation. The Castle Cup is not open to Class A men, and in the spring this was won by L. M. Judd and in the fall by Eklund. The Hall Cup, the most important Club tournament, was won by A. L. Castle.

Owing to the death of one of Hawaii's leading citizens, the annual inter-island team match was not played. The Beretania and Pacific Clubs renewed their old time rivalry, however, the Pacific Club winning after a close match. Several night tournaments were played in one of the valleys, the Manoa Club backing the proposition. They created a great deal of interest, though the tennis was certainly not as good as in the day time. The courts were illuminated by several arc lights, and the tournaments were on the whole very satisfactory.

Tennis players were pleased at the visit of the American team on its way to Australia. Although no tennis was played by the team on its downward trip, nevertheless the players were given a hearty welcome, experienced the delights of riding in the surf, and were sent away with all the best wishes for success.

NEW ENGLAND INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

AFTER twelve years of strenuous endeavors Dartmouth finally removed from competition the Challenge Cup of the New England Intercollegiate Tennis Association, and this in spite of the unexpected defeat of her chief hope, F. H. Harris in Singles, at the hands of C. H. Johnston, Jr., of Amherst. Dartmouth, however, won the Doubles, and this gave her the necessary one point to break the seven point each tie which existed between the Hanover College and Williams.

CHARLES H. JOHNSTON, Jr.
New England Intercollegiate Champion

Harris and Nelson won the Doubles Championship from Johnston and Shumway, thus winning the cup and serving in a measure as a balm to the injured feelings of the Dartmouth star, who had lost his title to Johnston in the first round of the Singles, being seized with severe cramps after winning the first set 7-5, which caused him to lose the next two 6-2, 6-0. WESTERN INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIP

The Western Interscholastic Championships were held in connection with the Intercollegiate event on the courts of the University of Chicago, and proved unusually successful. The clever net play of M. A. James of Evanston Academy gave him a win in Singles over A. J. Lindauer of the Englewood High School in the finals, and in the Doubles M. A. and H. E. James were triumphant, defeating Weil and May of Wendell Phillips High in a five-set match, 7-5, 3-6, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5.

GEORGE M. CHURCH
National Interscholastic Champion

NATIONAL INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIP

THE National Interscholastic Championship was played in conjunction with the National Championship at Newport. There were only two colleges represented, Princeton and Columbia, and only one match was necessary to decide the title; G. M. Church, Princeton, vs. W. M. Washburn, Columbia, two most promising young players. The match was well played, Church playing the more dashing game, going to the net at every chance, while his opponent played most of the time from the back of the court, which favored Church's style of play and brought him victory after five hard fought sets.

These two players showed their ability during the National tournament. Church played Thomas Bundy a dashing five-set match, while Washburn defeated Raymond Little in a finely played five sets.

STATE TOURNAMENTS

NEW YORK STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

MAURICE E. McLOUGHLIN
New York State Champion

AS usual the championship of the Empire State drew an entry of the calibre of a National event and this year larger in point of numbers than ever before, 88 players participating in Singles and 38 teams in Doubles.

The event was played from August 2 to 14, on the turf courts of the Crescent Athletic Club at Bay Ridge, Long Island, and was won by the California star, Maurice E. McLoughlin. The famous names on the list included besides McLoughlin's, T. C. Bundy's, Pell's, Long's, Little's, Gardner's, Inman's, Mahan's, and Hall's, and in the Doubles appeared Little and Touchard, Hackett and Alexander, Bundy and McLoughlin, Pell and Mahan, a fine array of stars.

McLoughlin shared his honors with T. R. Pell for the latter had much the weightier half of the draw and wore his way to the finals through Gardner, Palmer, Hall, Church and Bundy, who had put out Ray Little after the latter had defeated M. H. Long. McLoughlin's only real opponents were Mahan, who had beaten both Inman and Hackett, and C. Mr. Bull,' Jr.

A fine match resulted when these two expert racket wielders met in the finals, Pell going right through his doughty opponent in one set, but being defeated, nevertheless, 6-1, 6-8, 6-2 8-6.

The Doubles were productive of repeated sensations starting with the overwhelming defeat of the National champions, Hackett and Alexander, by Pell and Mahan. The victors in turn lost to Bundy and McLoughlin, who thus were once more brought face to face with their vanquishers in the National preliminary Doubles, Little and Touchard. Two sets were wonderful struggles, one being won by the New York representatives, 11-9, and the other by the westerners, 13-11, but the other two were easy for the champions-to-be.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENTS

The tennis season of 1911 at the Merion Cricket Club proved to be no exception to the several seasons preceding it, each of which has shown a constantly increasing interest in tennis among the club members.

PERCY D. SIVARD
Pennsylvania State Champion

The tournaments had larger entry lists than last year and attracted some skillful out-of-town players, who had not heretofore played on the Merion grounds.

Merion members as usual showed great skill in the game winning many important matches, and taking both Championships of Philadelphia, Miss Sayres winning the Women's Championship, and Wallace F. Johnson, the Men's Championship.

The weather was disappointing during the time set for some of the tournaments, causing postponement of matches, but otherwise the tournaments were greatly enjoyed by the spectators and players.

Pennsylvania State Tournament

This tournament was held June 5 and following days. There were fifty-three (53) entries in Singles, and fifteen (15) entries in Doubles. The tournament was won by Percy Siverd, who also defeated WallaceF. Johnson in the Championship Round. The Championship in Doubles was won by H. M. Tilden and A. D. Thayer.

MASSACHUSETTS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Although Nat W. Niles retained his title as Singles Champion of the old Bay State, it was a touch and go with him and the particular star of the tournament was the challenger, Frank J. Sulloway, who throughout the event played the most remarkable tennis of his career.

Many excellent contests made the annual tournament, held as usual at the Longwood C. C. on June 10 and days following, fully up to the standard.

Especially worthy of mention were the defeats of E. H. Whitney by E. T. Dana of the Harvard team, of Putnam by Warland, and Sweetser by H. T. Foster.

Another great contest was that between the old rivals, Bishop and H. C. Johnson, the former winning, 3-6, 13-11, 7-5.

Sulloway's steadiness and great getting ability carried him safely past Dabney, Dana and Bishop, and in the Challenge Match led 2 sets to 1 only to lose when a heavy shower soaked the court and made the balls and bounces dead.

MASSACHUSETTS STATE DOUBLES

Beals C. Wright and Frank J. Sulloway repeated their performance of 1908 and regained by a display of brilliant and steady doubles playing the titles which they had been obliged to relinquish in 1910 by the absence in England of the former.

Wright was at his best lobbing and smashing to perfection, and the diminutive Sulloway, who was made the point of attack in each of their six matches, covered himself with glory outplaying his opponent consistently and proving a most reliable and effective partner.

Putnam and Seaver opposed them in the finals, but were completely overtopped and in the challenge match the former Eastern champions and state title holders were decisively beaten, being unsteady though brilliant in streaks. They lost three sets in quick succession, giving Wright and Sulloway permanent possession of the challenge trophy.

The matches began on May 30 and were played on the clay courts of the Brae-Burn Country Club at West Newton.

WEST VIRGINIA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Sixth Annual Invitation Tennis Tournament for the Championship of West Virginia was held on the courts of the Parkersburg Country Club, August 21, 22 and 23, 1911.

Each succeeding year seems to be more productive of interest and enthusiasm than its predecessor, and the splendid entry list, together with ideal weather and high class tennis, made this tournament the most successful one in the history of the club.

Besides the numerous informal affairs arranged for the visiting players, they were royally entertained on the evening of the second day at a large banquet, and the brilliant club dance of the evening of the third day marked a fitting close of the tennis season.

In the Singles event, the Championship was carried away by Everett Drennen of Fairmont, West Virginia, who successfully defended in the challenge round against Phil Laughlin of Wheeling, W. Va., and by his finished and aggressive play won in straight sets by a score of 6-4, 6-3, 6-2. However great credit is due to Laughlin for his clever and consistent play throughout the tournament, and it made quite an impression among the followers of the game.

In the Doubles event the Championship was won by R. A. Johnson and J. A. Shrewsbury of Parkersburg, W. Va., against Messrs. Washington and Lawrence of Charleston, W. Va., in the finals by score of 9-7, 7-5, 6-2.

TRI-STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

CINCINNATI, OHIO

Richard Palmer, the New Jersey "southpaw" rose to the occasion after a poor season and successfully defended his title as Tri-State champion, at Cincinnati on September 9, defeating the rising Boston star in the challenge match in a close contest 14-12, 6-4 and 8-6. Bishop, paired with H. C. Johnson also of the Longwood Club, had his revenge in the Doubles, defeating his vanquisher in Singles; and Wallace Johnson easily in four sets, 6-8, 6-2, -2, 6-1.

RICHARD H. PALMER
Ohio Tri-State Champion

This Thirteenth Annual Tournament for the Championship of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, played as usual at the Cincinnati Tennis Club during the week of September 2, had a huge entry list of 95 and far excelled its immediate predecessor. Eighteen defaults were recorded, two of them being against G. T. Touchard and C. R. Gardner, but the cracks who did complete included "Dick" Bishop, H. C. Johnson, Wm. Hall, Wallace Johnson, Nat Emerson and Nat Thornton, and these experts furnished plenty of high class sport. The best match was that between H. C. Johnson of Boston and Emerson, which went to five sets, Johnson's accuracy and steadiness finally proving the undoing of the veteran to the tune of 6-1, 6-3, 4-6, 4-6, 9-7.

Hall easily defeated Wallace Johnson and met Bishop in the Finals,

H. C. Johnson having defaulted to his Doubles partner, Bishop was at his best and playing like a fiend, simply swamped the New York crack, 6-4, 6-0, 6-1.

The ladies' event had twenty-nine entries and only three defaults were chalked up, showing the lively interest of the fair sex in the tourney. Miss Majorie Dodd met with little opposition in her march to the championship. Misses Rotterman and Landers won the women's.

However, the tournament was a general success, the sociable end being carefully looked after, so the visiting players enjoyed their outing. R. H. Palmer won the tournament and had his name placed on the handsome cup which he holds for one year. There was a large gallery present to witness the good tennis shown in the final matches.

ILLINOIS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Annual State Championship Tournament was played at the Aztec Tennis Club at Chicago, during the week of July 8, and except for the delay in playing off the challenge match, caused by the unavoidable absence of the 1910 champion, Hayes, was in every respect the best of its kind.

In Singles Ludke came through the large list easily, again defeating C. S. Peters with rather more facility than in 1910. One upset in the preliminary round deserves comment, namely the defeat of Heath Byford, who won the Chicago title, by W. Wilkins.

The long postponed final match was eventually held on August 19. Ludke had one set to his credit in July when rain ended the contest, but Hayes evened up by winning the second at love. He lost the third, but then Ludke tired and the champion ran out the match and gained permanent possession of the trophy.

Morley and Ludke captured the Doubles, and Miss Carrie B. Neeley the Women's Singles.

OREGON STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Thirteenth Annual Tournament for the Championships of the State of Oregon was held on the grounds of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club at Portland, Oregon, July 17 to 22. Taken from every standpoint it was probably the most successful yet held and proves beyond question that tennis enthusiasm in the Pacific Northwest is increasing.

In 1910 the tournament was enlivened by the appearance on the courts of Nat Emerson, who won the Western States tournament at Chicago in both 1907 and 1908, who is now a fruit farmer near North Yakima, had decided to give up the game, but in the spring of 1910 the fever returned and he entered the Oregon State Tournament, the only one in which he contested that year. He was an easy winner, defeating Gorrill of Portland in the finals.

This year witnessed the appearance of Charles E. Foley of San Francisco. In the Singles of the Oregon State Foley had little trouble in getting to the finals. He disposed of Wickersham, who was runner-up in the North Pacific International Tournament, in straight sets, 6-3, 6-3. In the final Foley met Shives and defeated him easily, 6-1, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3. The Fiske cup, being a challenge cup.

Although good tennis was seen in the Foley-Emerson match the contest was rather a disappointment, owing to its one-sidedness. Foley showing remarkable form, beating the clever Emerson at his own style. Emerson's almost total abstinence from tennis playing since a year ago left him entirely unfit for a match with a younsgter of Foley's calibre.

By the use of his splendid backhand chop the former Western champion made wonderful returns of Foley's hard drives, but the younger man's superior speed and greater accuracy was too much for the veteran and he was able to get but five games in the last three sets, which Foley won, 6-1, 6-3, 6-1.

This left Foley as challenger for the title won by Nat Emerson in 1910.

In the Men's Doubles, Foley was paired with J. W. Lewis, a former Californian, but now a resident of Portland. While Lewis plays a fair game he was not nearly the equal of Foley, and for this reason it was generally conceded that Gorrill and Wickersham, who had won the North Pacific International title the previous week would have little difficulty in annexing the Doubles Championship, but the surprise of the tournament was witnessed in the challenge round. Foley and Lewis defeated the Portland pair three sets out of four, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

IDAHO STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

A dark horse, T. C. Fulton, won the 1911 Championship of the State of Idaho on the courts of the Lewiston Tennis Club June 14. His victory was enhanced by the fact that on the way he beat J. C. Tyler, the Northwest Pacific star, and wrested the title from Gray in straight sets.

CENTRAL IOWA TOURNAMENT

The Sixth Annual Meet of the Central Iowa Tennis Association was held on its home courts at Toledo, Iowa, July 11-15, 1911.

The high standard of excellence heretofore attained in the tournaments held by this association was fully maintained in the 1911 events. A good number of states were represented, and the only regret for Iowa was the fact that in the persons of John Barton and Geo. Douthit, both of Sioux Falls, S. D., that state was enabled to carry off our trophies, both in Singles and Doubles; but defeat only tends to greater efforts, so the 1912 tournament already promises great things in tennis for the Central Iowa Tennis Association.

LAWN TENNIS IN CALIFORNIA

PACIFIC STATES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Twenty-fourth tournament for the Championship of the Pacific States was held at Santa Cruz, Cal., during the week of June 19-26, and resulted as follows:

Men's Singles, M. E. McLoughlin; Women's Singles, Miss May Sutton; Mixed Doubles, Miss Sutton and Winnifred Mace; Women's Doubles, Miss Sutton and Miss Mary Browne. Wm. Johnston retained his title as junior champion in Singles and paired with Clyde Curley captured the Doubles as well.

The entry was large and included most of the leading players of the Coast, but the best match was between McLoughlin and the schoolboy star, William Johnston, whose sensational playing won a set from the International crack at 6-2. Foley was McLoughlin's opponent in the finals, but the latter simply overwhelmed him and playing like a whirlwind won 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, and thus earned the right to challenge the holder, M. H. Long. The match was brilliantly played, but McLoughlin's tremendous speed carried him through to a straight set victory.

Long and Foley annexed the Men's Doubles, winning in the finals from Mace and Dawson, but it took five sets to turn the trick.

Owing to the absence of most of the lady experts the women's events were hardly up to the high standard of past years. Miss May Sutton and Miss Browne, the only stars in the tournay, annexed all the honors easily.

LAWN TENNIS IN CANADA

NIAGARA INTERNATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Twenty-Fifth International Championship as usual took place on the courts of the Queen's Royal Hotel, Niagara-on-the Lake, Canada, August 28 and following days. It was quite an event, being the Silver Anniversary of the well-known and popular tournament. The tennis committee of the Niagara Tennis Club did everything to make it pleasant for the visiting players with dances, smoker and golf and those present had a most enjoyable week's outing.

Edwin H. Whitney of Boston carried off the honors in Singles, coming through by defeating Marty of Cincinnati, Kirkover of Buffalo, Beard of Cleveland, Armstrong of Minneapolis, and Harris, Dartmouth College Champion, all except the last named going down in straight sets. Harris only succumbed after a five-set tussle, however, which went to Whitney. Harris had previously beaten Benton of Cleveland and Baird of Toronto.

While Sherwood and Baird of Toronto took the Championship in Doubles by defeating Benton and Marty in the finals in a well played five set match.

The finals in Ladies' Singles is what the large gallery had looked forward to above all else since the start of the tournament, and which proved to be a most sensational match. The way it started it looked as if the present champion was in for one of the worse defeats of her career. Miss Sutton ran through the first set at love with a total loss of but 8 points, and 5 of these were on her own errors. Not a single game went to deuce. Miss Sutton reeled off three games in the second set, dropped one and then took two more, leading at 5-1. Right here the champion took the gallery by storm, when she quickly won a game at 40-15, another at 40-30, a third at love, and then three more for the set, each at 40-15. She had made the quickest recovery from a slump ever seen, and was playing like mad, taking the net at every chance where she volleyed and smashed with deadly aim.

The third set found Miss Sutton demoralized by the sudden turn of affairs, and try as she would she could not take a game, Miss Hotchkiss running out the set and match at 6-0. Miss Sutton kept the champion from getting started at the first set, and won it by wonderful driving from the backcourt. Then, when within seemingly easy reach of vic-

THE WINTER FLORIDA TOURNAMENT

THE Florida Championship for Men's Singles and Doubles is rapidly developing towards a tournament promising to be one of the largest and most important events in the country. When one considers the location of Palm Beach; that the event is played in late February, at a time when most players have not played for five months, one may easily realize that the privilege of getting a new name on one of the finest pieces of work of the silversmiths' art drew this year fifty entries and very few defaults. Many of the men arrived at Palm Beach a week to ten days before the tournament, and courts were given over to the entrants for practice. This of itself means considerable if the reader realizes that in the two mammoth hotels, Royal Poinciana and The Breakers are housed over two thousand guests, and the tennis courts are constantly in use. These courts are in charge of a professional instructor.

Play commenced Saturday afternoon. The gallery was a large one and the dirt courts were most perfect and spoken highly of by the visiting players. The finals brought Siverd out in one half against Dabney in the other. Many believed that owing to his broader experience in tournament play the Bostonian would prove too strong for the young Pittsburgh player, but those who had watched closely realized that while Dabney was the more brilliant, Siverd was far steadier, and won with comparative ease. The gallery witnessing the finals reminded one of a championship match at Newport. Siverd becomes the possessor of the first prize Singles, and gets a leg on the beautiful Florida State Challenge Bowl presented by Mrs. Flagler and which must be won three years. Beals C. Wright, having the first leg, and George M. Church the second. Siverd's winning score was 6-4, 6-4, 0-6, and 6-3.

The Men's Doubles events brought out much interest, twenty teams contesting. In the Doubles finals Dabney and Reece proved no match for Siverd and Rendall, and were easily beaten 6-0, 6-2, 6-3. There was no challenge match as George Church, last year's winner of the Bowl, could not play owing to his college duties.

Nothing but praise was heard of the tournament and its management, and particularly of the courtesies shown all the players so ably personified through the secretary of the Palm Beach Tennis Club, Mr. H. M. Wing. Not one thing was left undone, Mr. Wing being constant in his efforts to see that every detail connected with a first-class high grade event was looked after.

LAWN TENNIS AT CANAL ZONE, PANAMA

THE Isthmian Tennis Association includes all the clubs on the Canal Zone located at Panama (Native) Ancon, Tivoli, Corozal, Culebra, Empire, Gorgona, Bas Obispo, Gatun, Cristobal au Colon, (Q. C. C. Employes) and at Camp Elliott (U. S. Marines) with a total membership of about 250 and 18 courts of clay, cinders and cement.

The 1912 schedule consists of monthly tournaments in Singles and Doubles, during the dry season, January—July, restricted to one entry from each club; an annual Doubles for a cup presented by Maduro-Lupi Co. of Panama, and an Open Singles and Doubles.

There is also an open Singles and Doubles run by the July 4 celebration committee each year.

The January Doubles was won by Mr. G. K. Newbold and Chase Pulsifer, representing the Empire, winning from Messrs. Hart and Farquharson of Cristobal, 10-8, 6-4; Fechtig and Nevius of Tivoli, 6-3, 6-4; and Runyan and Ross of Ancon, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. Of these teams Hart and Farquharson and Runyan and Ross were both winners of similar tournaments in 1911, and Mr. Fechtig won the July 4, 1911, Singles.

There is play here throughout the year, though tournaments are restricted to the dry season. The monthly tournaments are restricted to one entry per club as it is necessary to complete each tournament in one day's play, and with the thermometer up out of reach three to five matches in one day makes a good test of endurance as well as tennis.

Empire from the beginning has taken a prominent place in tennis, holding Singles in 1908-09-10; Season Doubles in 1910 (weekly schedule like base ball, each club several matches with every other) Maduro-Lupi Cup 1910; dropping to second place in 1911 with Ancon first, counting number of places won in season's tournaments.

Chase Pulsifer has won the Maduro-Lupi Cup first in Singles and Doubles 1910, second in Singles and Doubles 1911 and first in Doubles 1912. Have not yet competed in Singles this year.

Ancon holds three strong players in Doctors Herrick, Runyan and Ross, and has divided honors about equally with Empire, with Tivoli and Colon close behind.

GROUP OF PLAYERS
West Mexico Tournament

TENNIS IN WEST MEXICO

INTEREST in tennis in West Mexico was desultory prior to 1910. The establishment of the Country Club at Guadalajara and of the Club Deportivo at San Pedro, with eight fine clay courts each, first furnished the incentive for a keen rivalry in the sport. In the fall of 1910 the West Coast Championship was contended for on the courts of the Guadalajara Country Club, Otto E. Kraft winning from twenty-eight contestants in Singles. No Doubles Championship was declared, the number of entries being small.

The Doubles Championship Tournament was held on the Country Club courts in 1911, June 24 to July 1 inclusive, Otto E. Kraft and Dr. Harry A. Palmer winning in the finals from Carlos Pomeroy and C. E. Scoggins. Both of these teams had come through the tournament without the loss of a set.

The Score:

Doubles

Preliminary Round: Holms and Holms beat E. Macias and Merrill, 6-1, 6-1.

First Round: Kraft and Palmer defeated Holms and Holms, 6-1, 6-2; Basave and Martinez Negrete beat Lebre and Gandoulf, 6-4, 7-5; Prieto and Verea beat F. Macias and Castiello, 8-6, 6-4; Pomeroy and Scoggins beat Fernandez del Valle and Corcuera, 6-2, 6-4.

Semi-Final Round: Kraft and Palmer beat Basave and Martinez Negrete, 6-1, 6-1; Pomeroy and Scoggins beat Prieto and Verea, 6-2, 6-2.

Final Round: Kraft and Palmer beat Pomeroy and Scoggins, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

The Country Club presented the winners and the runners-up with handsome silver loving cups. No permanent trophy as yet exists.

The Club Deportivo held a Return Handicap Tournament at San Pedro in November, offering as prizes six silver cups. Fourteen Doubles teams and twenty-two Singles contestants entered. Kraft and Palmer won in Doubles, Scoggins and Woodyard running up. Kraft won in Singles, Ancira running up. The runners-up in each case won the Consolation series.

A strong field of entries is expected for the 1912 Championships, to be held in May.

ALBERT C. BOSTWICK

THE death of an enthusiastic follower of the game of Lawn Tennis occurred on November 10, 1911, at his home in New York very suddenly of brain fever. Mr. Bostwick played a great deal during the year at home and abroad, being much attached to the game, and whenever chance offered did what he could to advance it.

MISS ELSIE R. LITTLE

THE sad death of Miss Little, sister of Raymond D. Little, occurred at Pinehurst, N. C., February 3, 1912, after a week's tennis. She was run over by a train which was backing as she was waiting at the station to take the train for New York. She will be greatly missed by her tennis friends, being of a very jolly disposition and very popular.

Miss Little was a member of the West Side Club of New York. She was a very good player and fond of the game.

H. S. LeROY

IN the passing of Herman Stewart Le Roy, of New York, who died on June 10 from an attack of heart disease, the game of lawn tennis suffered a material loss. Mr. Le Roy was devoted to the game, playing quite a good deal himself, principally on an indoor court, and it was under his tutelage that his son, Robert Le Roy, attained such remarkable success. The elder Le Roy will be remembered by all habitues of the Indoor Tennis Club on 41st street, New York, and everyone who came in contact with him there or elsewhere came under the influence of his charming personality.

He was born April 8, 1856.

LAWN TENNIS NOTES

THE playing of Miss Hotchkiss last summer during her visit east showed a grand record, meeting all the best lady players in tournaments at Philadelphia (Woman's Championship) Pittsburgh, New York, Newport, Longwood and Canada, playing Miss May and Florence Sutton, Miss Moyes and others, defeating them all and not losing a tournament during the season.

I Congratulate You.

There was introduced last summer on the courts of the Rochester and Park Clubs, Buffalo, N. Y., the novel idea of lawn tennis being played outdoor on a regular court by electric light, played almost as well by night as by day. The lights were placed full length of the court on either side, ten feet high, which lights it up so brightly that the ball can be seen well at all times.

All players who have taken part in the International or "Davis Cup" matches have been presented by the Lawn Tennis Association with sterling silver miniature cups, a fac-simile of the original Davis Cup.

The Ojai Valley Tennis Tournament held at Nordhoff, Southern California, May 4, 5 and 6 is one of the leading tournaments of California, the tennis committee taking a general interest in encouraging the younger players. Outside of having an open tournament, they have Intercollegiate and Interscholastic events. At this tournament McLoughlin, Long, Bundy, Miss Hotchkiss and Miss May and Florence Sutton generally take part.

There has been introduced for the coming season a new patent Racket Case and Press all in one. The racket case is made of leather the regular size, with the press inside, and after being closed is worked from the outside by a turn screw, which keeps the racket frame firmly in place and prevents it from warping. It should prove a very welcome article to the player who does a great deal of tournament playing and takes an interest in the condition of his rackets. See cut among tennis advertisements of Guide.

California has several promising young players coming along in John Strachan, E. Fottrell and William Johnston, will soon take the places of McLoughlin, Bundy and Long. These junior players are under the care of Dr. Marvin, who is an admirer of the game and takes a general interest in the Golden Gate Park Juniors. It was he who brought out Maurice McLoughlin.

The Third Annual Clay Court Championship of the United States has been awarded to Pittsburgh by the U. S. N. L. T. Asso., and will be played on the courts of the Pittsburgh Athletic Association, June 22 and following days and will give the many clay court players of the east an opportunity to contend for the honor; players who enter the tournament are sure to enjoy a most pleasant week's outing.

By an oversight of the ranking committee Joseph J. Armstrong of the University of Minnesota, western Intercollegiate champion who was ranked in 1910 at 54, last year was not ranked at all, after playing a very successful season winning several tournaments and making a good showing in all tournaments he played, which no doubt would have placed him in the 20 class.

The tennis committee of the Rhode Island State Championship Tournament has prepared a Ranking List of the ten best players of that state for the year 1911 as follows:

1. J. D. E. Jones
2. E. Tudor Gross
3. John O. Ames
4. Harold A. Mackinney
5. Russell N. Dana
6. Dr. Albert A. Barrows
7. Stanley Henshaw
8. Dr. Charles O. Cooke
9. Arthur Ingraham
10. Newton P. Hutchinson

Lawn Tennis is becoming a very popular sport in the Philippine Islands, the Filippinos taking to the game quite naturally and already have several very good players.

Following is the Ranking of the California players by the officers of the Pacific States Lawn Tennis Association:

1. M. E. McLoughlin
2. T. C. Bundy
3. M. H. Long
4. Chas. Foley
5. Ward Dawson
6. Herbert Long
7. John Strachan
8. W. Johnston
9. E. Fottrell

HOW TO MAKE A LAWN TENNIS COURT

In making a Lawn Tennis Court there should be, if possible, a clear margin of at least 12 feet on each side and 21 feet at each end of the court, or, between adjacent courts, 18 feet on each side; but should the courts be placed end to end, or end to side, there should be spaces of 42 feet or 33 feet respectively and a back net at least 8 feet high between.

The cheapest and most easy court to make is a

Clay Court

It is done by removing the sward from the lawn, taking care that the same is cut deep enough not to allow any of the grass roots to remain; there should be a space dug out 118 feet by 56 and about 6 or 10 inches deep, fill in with yellow clay and cover with 1-2 inch of carefully sifted binding gravel, taking out all small stones to the size of a pea, wet well and roll into the foundation of clay. If the court continues to be soft or sticky, spread more binding gravel over it, and continue to roll until the clay and gravel commences to bind and becomes firm. The maker of the court will have to use his own best judgment about this, as it is hard to decide the exact quantities of clay and binding gravel that should be used to cause the court to have the proper firmness.

In making the court there should be a gradual slope from the base lines to the center running across the court. Between the net posts should be built a blind drain; this is done to take off the water after a heavy rain.

A stone foundation is bad for a court, as it becomes hard and dry and severe on a player's feet and legs to play on.

Grass Courts

These can be made in three ways, namely: first, by improving an existing stretch of turf until it is level and smooth enough; second, by leveling the ground, preparing the soil, and sowing grass seeds; and third, by laying fresh turf. Of these, the former is of course the simplest; but as the requisite piece of grass land is rarely available, particulars for preparing it are seldom required. In improving such a piece of turf care should be taken to remove all weeds or coarse grasses, and to freely use the spirit-level. To raise hollow places the turf should be cut out, lifted, and fine soil placed underneath until the proper height has been obtained, when the turf should be replaced and well beaten down with the flat side of a spade. On the other hand, small mounds should be removed by taking the soil away from under the grass, some fine mould being placed underneath the turf before it is replaced. To prepare a court for sowing seeds the same instructions may be followed as for making a turf-laid one, except that the seed will be sown instead of the turfs laid. Take care that the seed is good by purchasing from a first-class seedsman, and, when ordering, it will be well to state what sort of soil is to be sown. By far the larger number of courts are made by laying fresh turfs.

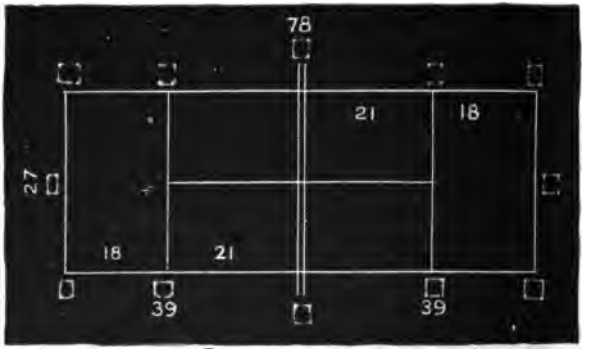
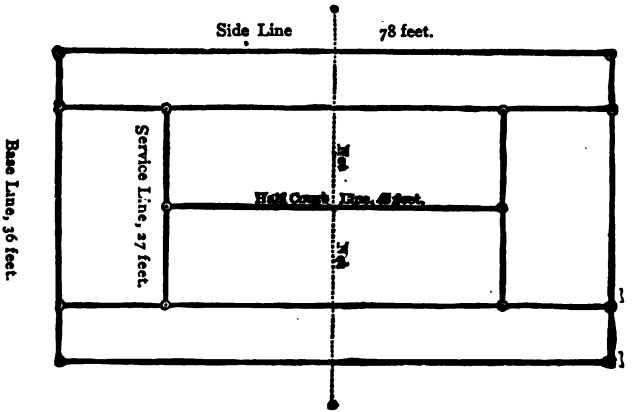
When preparing the ground for a court, it is desired to level a portion measuring 100 x 50 feet, which allows an ample margin; but for the playing portion itself only 78 x 36 feet is necessary. If economy must be strictly considered, only the latter need be carefully prepared; but it is better to have the whole done if possible.



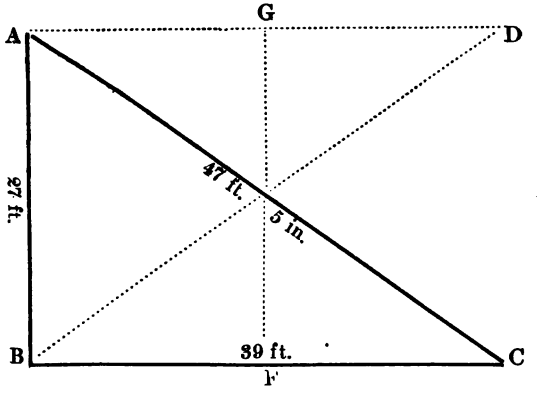
SINGLE COURT.



DOUBLE AND SINGLE COURT.

Dimensions of Lawn Tennis Courts.—The above cuts give the dimensions of the single court, and the double and single court on which a single or double game can be played.

HOW TO MARK OUT A COURT



As a double court practically includes every line to be found in a single court, it is best to take first the measure for the latter. Having determined the position of your net, plant in the ground, in the line chosen, two pegs, 27 feet apart (at the points A and B in the diagram). Then take two measures and attach their respective ends to the pegs A and B. On the first, which will measure the diagonal of the court, take a length of 47 ft. 5 in.; on the other, 39 ft.; pull both taut in such directions that at these distances they meet, in a point C. This will give one corner of the court. At that point, F 21 feet from B, put in a peg to mark the end of the service-line. The other corner, D, and the other end of the service-line G, may be found by interchanging the measures and repeating the process. The same measurements on the other side of the net will complete the exterior boundaries of the court. By prolonging the base-line 4 ft. 6 in. in each direction, and joining the four new points thus obtained, we can make the side-lines of a double court. It only remains to mark the central line. This is done by joining the middle points of the service-lines. If a double court alone be required, the interior side-lines need not be prolonged to meet the base-lines. Remember that in all cases the net-posts must stand at a distance of three feet from the side-lines.

LAWS OF LAWN TENNIS.

THE COURT.

1. The Court is 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to two posts, A and B, standing 3 feet outside of the court on either side. The height of the net is 3 feet 6 inches at the posts, and 3 feet in the middle. At each end of the court, parallel with the net, and 39 feet from it, are drawn the base lines D E and F C, the ends of which are connected by the side lines D F and E C. Halfway between the side lines, and parallel with them, is drawn the half court line I H, dividing the space on each side of the net into two equal parts, the right and left courts. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it, and parallel with it. are drawn the service lines K L and M N.

THE BALLS.

2. The Balls shall measure not less than 2½ inches, nor more than 2 9-16 inches in diameter; and shall weigh not less than 1 15-16 ounces, nor more than 2 ounces.

THE GAME.

3. The choice of sides, and the right to serve in the first game, shall be decided by toss; provided that, if the winner of the toss choose the right to serve, the other player shall have choice of sides, and vice versa, or the winner of the toss may insist upon a choice by his opponent. If one player choose the court, the other may elect not to serve.

4. The players shall stand on opposite sides of the net; the player who first delivers the ball shall be called the server, and the other the striker-out.

5. At the end of the first game the striker-out shall become server, and the server shall become striker-out; and so on alternately in all the subsequent games of the set and following sets.

FOOT FAULT RULE.

LAW 6. The server shall before commencing to serve stand with both feet at rest behind (i.e., further from the net than) the base-line and within the limits of the imaginary continuation of the half-court and side-lines, and thereafter the server shall not run, walk, hop or jump before the service has been delivered, but the server may raise one foot from (and, if desired, replace it on) the ground, provided that both feet are kept behind the base line until the service has been delivered.

Official Interpretation of law 6. If a foot be lifted and replaced, there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step.

LAW 7.—The service shall be delivered from the right and left courts alternately, beginning from the right in every game, even though odds be given or owed, and the ball served shall drop within the service-line, half court-line and side-line of the court which is diagonally opposite to that from which it was served or upon any such line.

LAW 8.—It is a fault if the server commit any breach of Law 7, or if the service be delivered from the wrong court, or if the ball served drop in the net or beyond the service line, or if it drop out of court or in the wrong court. If the server in attempting to serve, miss the ball altogether, it does not count a fault; but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

8. It is a Fault if the ball served drop in the net, or beyond the service line, or out of court, or in the wrong court; or if the server do not stand as directed by law 6. If the server, in attempting to serve, miss the ball altogether, it does not count a fault, but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

9. A fault cannot be taken.

10. After a fault the server shall serve again from the same court from which he served that fault, unless it was a fault because he served from the wrong court.

11. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service is delivered.

12. The server shall not serve till the striker-out is ready. If the latter attempt to return the service, he shall be deemed ready.

13. A service or fault delivered when the striker-out is not ready counts for nothing.

14. The service shall not be volleyed, that is, taken, before it has touched the ground.

15. A ball is in play on leaving the server's racket, except as provided for in law 8, and remains in play till the stroke is decided.

16. It is a good return, although the ball touch the net; but a service, otherwise good, which touches the net shall count for nothing.

17. The server wins a stroke if the striker-out volley the service, or if he fail to return the service or the ball in play; or if he return the service or the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke, as provided by law 20.

18. The striker-out wins a stroke if the server serve two consecutive faults; or if he fail to return the ball in play; or if he return the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke as provided by law 20.

19. A ball falling on a line is regarded as falling in the court bounded by that line.

20. Either player loses a stroke if the ball touch him, or anything that he wears or carries, except his racket in the act of striking; or if he touch the ball with his racket more than once; or if he touch the net or any of its supports while the ball is in play; or if he volley the ball before it has passed the net.

21. In case a player is obstructed by any accident, not within his control, the ball shall be considered a "let." But when a permanent fixture of the court is the cause of the accident, the point shall be counted. The benches and chairs placed around the court shall be considered permanent fixtures. If, however, a ball in play strike a permanent fixture of the court (other than the net or posts) before it touches the ground, the point is lost; if after it has touched the ground, the point shall be counted.

22. On either player winning his first stroke, the score is called 15 for that player; on either player winning his second stroke, the score is called 30 for that player; on either player winning his third stroke, the score is called 40 for that player; and the fourth stroke won by either player is scored game for that player, except as below. If both players have won three strokes, the score is called deuce; and the next stroke won by either player is scored advantage for that player. If the same player win the next stroke, he wins the game; if he lose the next stroke the score returns to deuce, and so on until one player wins the two strokes immediately following the score of deuce, when game is scored for that player.

23. The player who first wins six games wins the set; except as below: If both players win five games the score is called games all; and the next game won by either player is scored advantage game for that player. If the same player win the next game, he wins the set; if he lose the next game, the score returns to games all; and so on, until either player wins the two games immediately following the score of games all, when he wins the set. But the committee having charge of any tournament may in their discretion modify this rule by the omission of advantage sets.

24. The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set and at the end of each set, unless the number of games in such set be even. It shall, however, be open to the players by mutual consent and notification to the umpire before the opening of the second game of the match to change sides instead at the end of every set until the odd and concluding set, in which they shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of such set.

* 25. In all contests the play shall be continuous from the first service till the match be concluded; provided, however, that at the end of the third set either player is entitled to a rest, which shall not exceed seven minutes; and provided, further, that in case of an unavoidable accident, not within the control of the contestants, a cessation of play which shall not exceed two minutes may be allowed between points; but this proviso shall be strictly construed, and the privilege never granted for the purpose of allowing a player to recover his strength or wind. The referee in his discretion may at any time postpone the match on account of darkness or condition of the ground or weather. In any case of postponement, the previous score shall hold good. Where the play has ceased for more than an hour, the player who at the cessation thereof

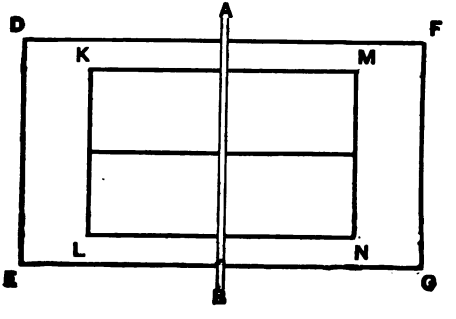
*All matches in which women take part in tournaments held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association shall be the best two in three sets, with a rest not exceeding seven minutes after the second set.

was in the court first chosen shall have the choice of courts on the recommencement of play. He shall stay in the court he chooses for the remainder of the set. The last two sentences of this rule do not apply when the players change every alternate game as provided by law 24.

26. If a player serve out of his turn, the umpire, as soon as the mistake is discovered, shall direct the player to serve who ought to have served. But all strokes scored before such discovery shall be counted. If a game shall have been completed before such discovery, then the service in the next alternate game shall be delivered by the player who did not serve out of his turn, and so on in regular rotation.

27. The above laws shall apply to the three-handed and four-handed games, except as below:—

THE THREE-HANDED AND FOUR-HANDED GAMES.



28. For the three-handed and four-handed games the court shall be 36 feet in width; 4½ feet inside the side lines, and parallel with them, are drawn the service side lines K M and L N. The service lines are not drawn beyond the point at which they meet the service side lines, as shown in the diagram.

29. In the three-handed game, the single player shall serve in every alternate game.

30. In the four-handed game, the pair who have the right to serve in the first game shall decide which partner shall do so; and the opposing pair shall decide in like manner for the second game. The partner of the player who served in the first game shall serve in the third, and the partner of the player who served in the second game shall serve in the fourth, and the same order shall be maintained in all the subsequent games of the set.

31. At the beginning of the next set, either partner of the pair which struck out in the last game of the last set may serve; and the same privilege is given to their opponents in second game of the new set.

32. The players shall take the service alternately throughout the game; a player cannot receive a service delivered to his partner; and the order of service and striking out once established shall not be altered, nor shall the striker-out change courts to receive the service, till the end of the set.

33. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop between the service line, half-court line, and service side line of the court, diagonally opposite to that from which it was served.

34. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop as provided in law 35, or if it touch the server's partner or anything he wears or carries.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This organization shall be known as the "United States National Lawn Tennis Association."

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. There shall be two classes of members:—

1. Clubs.
2. Associations of Clubs.

SECT. 2. An association of clubs shall consist of five or more individual clubs, any one of which may, or may not, be itself a member of the National Association. But no club shall otherwise be a member of more than one association.

SECT. 3. Every such association shall represent either a stated section of the country, or a stated number of schools and colleges, and in each case its stated limits shall necessarily exclude to that extent the stated limits of every other association.

SECT. 4. Propositions for Membership.— Propositions for membership must be made in writing to the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, with the name and address of the applicant, and signed by the Secretary of the club or association making the proposal. Where the applicant is an association, the names and addresses of each of its members shall be given with the application, together with a statement of the limits that it desires to represent; and thereafter such association, if elected, shall notify the Secretary of the National Association of any changes in its membership immediately upon occurrence.

SECT. 5. The Executive Committee shall have full power to pass upon candidates for membership without a general election, except that no association shall be deemed a member whose limits shall conflict with those of other associations until its admittance be confirmed by a two-thirds' vote at the annual meeting of the National Association, or by the consent of the associations upon whose limits it encroaches. The admittance to membership of such an association necessarily decreases the limits of other associations to such an extent as shall preclude a conflict of limits.

SECT. 6. Dues, etc.— The annual dues to this Association, in the case of clubs, shall be seven dollars ($7), and, in the case of associations of clubs, shall be twenty-five dollars ($25), except that, where any association is composed of more than ten clubs, its annual dues shall, in addition, be ten dollars ($10) for every five clubs or fraction thereof members of it so additional. No club or association shall be allowed the privileges of a member until its first annual dues have been paid. All dues for the ensuing year shall be payable at the annual meeting.

SECT. 7. Limits of Payments, etc. — Any club or association which shall fail to have paid its annual dues at the expiration of one month after the annual meeting may be debarred from the privileges of a member by the Executive Committee, and, at their discretion, may be dropped from the roll.

SECT. 8. Resignations, etc. — Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing, addressed to the Secretary; and the resignation cannot be accepted until all dues are paid.

ARTICLE III.

EXPULSIONS, ETC.

The Executive Committee of this Association, hereinafter provided for, shall have the power to suspend or expel any member which may neglect or refuse a strict and honorable compliance with this Constitution, By-Laws, etc., or which shall, by scandalous conduct, bring reproach or disgrace upon the Association; or which shall, being itself an association, retain as one of its members any club objected to by notice in writing by the Executive Committee, subject to a right of the said member to appeal to the Association, at its next annual meeting, for reinstatement.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The officers of this Association shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer.

and an Executive Committee of thirteen members, including the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members of the Committee. No person can be an officer who is not an active member of a club belonging either directly to this Association, or indirectly, as specified in Art. II., Sec. 2.

SECT. 2. Time and Mode of Election.—The election of officers shall be by ballot or roll call at the annual meeting in each year. They shall be voted for separately, and receive a majority of all votes cast to entitle them to an election; and they shall continue in office for one year, or until their successors shall be elected.

9.—It is the duty of an Umpire—

(a) To ascertain that the net is at the right height before the commencement of play, and to measure and adjust the net during play, if asked to do so, or if, in his opinion, its height has altered.

(b) To call the faults (subject to Regulation 10) and lets unless he delegates such power.

(c) To call the strokes when won, or when he is asked to call them, and to record them upon the Umpire's scoring sheet.

(d) To call the games and the sets at the end of each,

---

* Example:

The strokes are scored by means of pencil marks in the spaces beneath the word "STROKES," thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.																				Game won by
1	A. B.	1	1		1		1
	C. D.			1		1
2	C. D.		1		1	1		1			1	1	1
	A. B.	1		1			1		1	1

The Scoring Sheet shows that in the first game the score ran, and would have been called, thus: —"15—love, 30—love, 30—15, 40—15, 40—30, game (A.B.)" In the second game: "Love—15, 15 all, 15—30, 30 all, 40—30, deuce, advantage (C.D.), deuce, advantage (A.B.), deuce, advantage (C.D.), game (C.D.)"

The score of the Server should be called first.

or when asked to call them, and to record them on the Umpire's scoring sheet.

NOTE—At the end of each game the games should be called with the name of the player who is in advance, thus: "2 games to 1, B wins" or, "B leads." If the games are level the score should be called thus, "three games all," or as the case may be. At the end of each set the sets should be called in like manner.

(e) To direct the Competitors to change sides, in accordance with Law 24.

In scoring handicap matches, the odds received should be marked by crosses on the right of the first perpendicular thick line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
3	A. B.	+
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +

Here A. B. is receiving 15 and 2-sixths of 15.

(f) When appealed to during a rally, whether a doubtful ball is "in play" or not, to call "play," and at the conclusion of the rally to give his decision (subject to Regulation 11) or direct the Competitors to play the stroke again.

(g) To decide all doubtful or disputed strokes, and all points of law (subject to Regulations 10 and 11), and to be responsible for the proper conduct of the match.

When odds are owed, they should be marked on the left of the first thick perpendicular line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	1 1
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	1
3	A. B.	1 1
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	1
5	A. B.	1
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	1

(h) In handicap matches to call the odds at the commencement of each set.

(i) To sign the Umpire's scoring sheets, and to deliver them at the conclusion of the match to such person as the Committee may authorize to receive them.

Provided, that no omission of any of the foregoing duties on the part of an Umpire shall of itself invalidate any stroke, game or match.

and should be crossed off one by one when the player owing wins a stroke, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+ +
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+
3	A. B.	+ +
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+

Here A.B. owes 15 and 2-sixths of 15.

10.—It is the duty of the Linesman to call faults and to decide strokes relating to the line or lines to which he is assigned and to said line or lines only, and such decision shall be final. Should the Linesman be unable to give a decision, the Umpire shall decide or shall direct the stroke to be played again.

11. The decision of an Umpire shall be final upon every question of fact, and no competitor may appeal from it; but if an Umpire be in doubt as to a point of law, or if a competitor appeal against his decision on such a point, the Umpire shall submit it to the Referee whose decision shall be final.

NOTE—A question of fact relates to events that actually happened. A question of law is the construction and application of the laws of the game to the admitted facts.

12. The Referee shall not bet on a match nor shall an Umpire or Linesman on the match to which he is assigned. An infraction of this rule shall be followed by the immediate removal of the offending Referee, Umpire or Linesman on the complaint of any competitor.

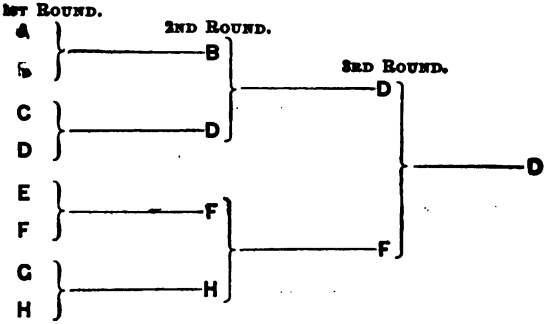
13. No Competitor may transfer his entry to another player.

14.—Competitors shall have a right, by themselves or their deputies, to be present at the draw.

15.—The draw shall be conducted in the following manner: Each Competitor's name shall be written on a separate card or paper, and these shall be placed in a bowl or hat, drawn out one by one at random, and copied on a list in the order in which they have been drawn

Infraction of this rule renders a Club or other organization liable to loss of its tournament for the following year; except that in invitation tournaments, and competitions between nations, states, cities, clubs and similar bodies where the competition is really between such bodies and not between the players as individuals, players may be placed in such manner as agreed upon by the management of the competition, and except that in Intercollegiate and Interscholastic matches the draw shall be arranged to prevent members of the same college or school from meeting each other in the first and second rounds, the draw in other ways being arranged absolutely by chance.

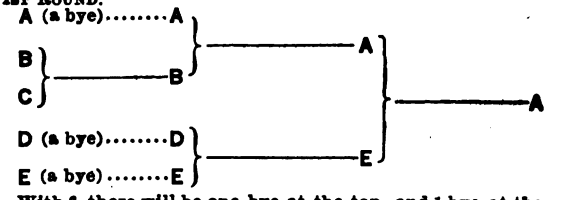
16.—When the number of Competitors is 4, 8, 16 32, 64, or any higher power of 2, they shall meet in pairs, in accordance with the system shown by the following diagram:



17.—When the number of Competitors is not a power of 2, there shall be byes in the first round. The number of byes shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next higher power of 2, and the number of pairs that shall meet in the first round shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next lower power of 2. The byes, if even in number, shall be divided, as the names are drawn, in equal proportions at the top and bottom of the list, above and below the pairs. If uneven in number, there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. Thus—

SERIES 1.

From 5 to 8 Competitors.



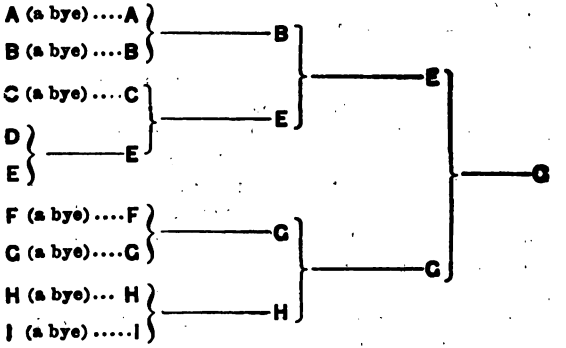
With 6, there will be one bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom. With 7, 1 bye at the bottom. With 8, no byes.

SERIES 2.

From 9 to 16 Competitors.

With 9, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.

1ST ROUND.

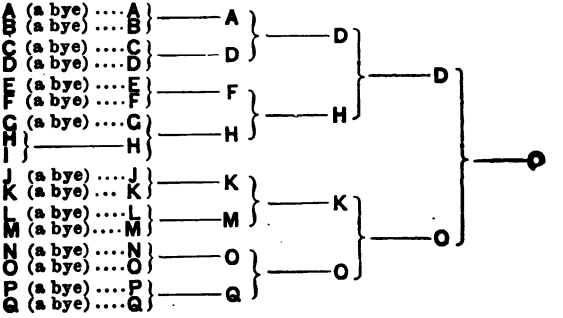


With 10, 3 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 11, 2 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 12, 2 byes at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 13, 1 bye at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 14, 1 bye at the top, and 1 at the bottom.
With 15, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 16, no byes.

SERIES 3.

From 17 to 32 Competitors.

With 17, 7 byes at the top, and 8 byes at the bottom.



With 18, 7 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 19, 6 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 20, 6 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 21, 5 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 22, 5 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 23, 4 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 24, 4 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 25, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 26, 3 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 27, 2 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 28, 2 byes at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 29, 1 bye at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 30, 1 bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom.
With 31, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 32, no byes.
And so on with larger numbers in the same manner.

18.—If a Competitor be absent when called upon to play, or shall refuse to play, or shall have given previous notice to the Referee or to a member of the Committee that he cannot play in the next round, his adversary shall win in that round, unless said Competitor shall have been formally excused for a definite period by the Referee.

19.—In handicap matches the competitors shall be handicapped by the Committee, or by a Handicapper appointed by the Committee.

20.—The method of handicapping shall be by classes as below: —

GIVEN ODDS.

Class O — (Scratch).

Class	1	receives	1-sixth of 15.
"	2	"	2-sixths of 15.
"	3	"	3-sixths of 15.
"	4	"	4-sixths of 15.
"	5	"	5-sixths of 15.
"	6	"	15.
"	7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.
"	10	"	15 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	11	"	15 and 5-sixths of 15.

"	16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.
"	18	"	40.

When two players in different classes below scratch meet, the superior player shall start from scratch, and the odds received by the inferior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 1. To use the table, find in the diagonal line of figures the number representing the class of the superior player, then travel along the horizontal column until the vertical column is reached which bears at the top the number of the class of the inferior player. The odds specified at the intersection of the two columns are the odds required.

Example.—If class 3 has to meet class 9, start from the figure 3 in the diagonal line of figures, and look horizontally until the vertical column is reached headed by the figure 9. The odds given at the point of intersection of the two columns (viz., 15 and 1-6 of 15) are the odds required.

When the difference between the best and the worst players entered is great (say more than 30), it is desirable to handicap the best players at owed odds. The players above scratch (i. e., owing odds) should be classified as follows: —

OWED ODDS.

Class	1	owes	1-sixth of 15.
"	2	"	2-sixths of 15.
"	3	"	3-sixths of 15.
"	4	"	4-sixths of 15.
"	5	"	5-sixths of 15.

When two players meet who are handicapped to owe odds, the player owing the lesser odds is placed at scratch. This Table shows the odds the other will still owe.

This table has been calculated upon the following data:—

In the case of owed odds—

The average value of $\frac{1}{2}$ is .2158
" " " $\frac{2}{3}$ " .3929
" " " $\frac{3}{4}$ " .5188
" " " $\frac{4}{5}$ " .6448
" " " $\frac{5}{6}$ " .7975
" " Length of a game is 4.6250 strokes.

In using this table supply throughout the word "owe" before the odds specified.

When the two players in different classes above scratch meet, the inferior player shall start from scratch, and the odds owed by the superior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 2.

This table is to be used in the same way as the former, the class of the superior player being looked for in the horizontal line of figures at the top, and the class of the inferior player in the diagonal line of figures.

Example.—If class 12 (owe 30) meet class 7 (owe 15 and 1-6 of 15), the former must owe the latter the odds of 4-6 of 15.

21.—In Championship matches and handicaps by classes, as above, advantage sets shall be played throughout.

22.—The Committee may, whether appealed to by any Competitor or not, postpone the meeting or any match or part of a match if, in their opinion, the state of the weather, or of the light, or the condition of the ground, or other circumstances, render it advisable to do so. In cases of postponement, Law 25 must be strictly observed.

23.—In all Tournaments sanctioned by the Association the use of spikes longer than one-eighth of an inch is prohibited.

REGULATIONS FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC TOURNAMENTS

Colleges or clubs, members directly or indirectly of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, may, with the consent of the Association give Interscholastic tournaments.

Players in such tournaments shall be limited to boys attending schools preparing for college.

No player shall take part who is over twenty years of age, and no player shall take part in more than one Interscholastic event in one year.

The winners of such tournaments shall be eligible to play for the Interscholastic Championship at a tournament given by the National Association, and should a winner of an Interscholastic tournament be unable to play for the Championship, the management of the Interscholastic which he should have [represented shall have the power to appoint a substitute, provided that such substitute played in the said Interscholastic tournament given that year. No dues shall be required by the National Association other than the regular dues of the college or club giving the event.

Cases and Decisions.

By James Dwight.

THE following Cases and Decisions are intended to meet questions often asked at Tournaments, and also to cover points apparently not provided for in the Laws.

1. A player standing outside the court volleys the ball or catches it in his hand, and claims the stroke because the ball was certainly going out of court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. It makes no difference where he was standing. The return is presumed good until it strikes the ground outside of the court.

II. A player is struck by the ball served before it has touched the ground, he being outside of the service court. How does it count?

Decision.—The player struck loses the stroke. The service is presumably good until it strikes in the wrong court. A player cannot take the decision upon himself by stopping the ball. If it is going to be a fault, he has only to get out of the way.

III. The service is delivered before the striker-out is ready. He tries to return it and fails. Is he entitled to have it played over again?

Decision.—No. If he attempts to return the service he is deemed ready.

IV. The striker-out calls "Not ready," for a second service. The ball strikes beyond the service line, and the striker-out claims that the fact that he was not ready makes no difference, since a fault cannot be returned, and, therefore, that two faults have been served.

Decision.—The second service goes for nothing. A player cannot call "Not ready," and then have the service count, or not, as suits his interests.

V. A ball having been played over the net bounds back into the court from which it came. The player reaches over the net and plays it before it falls. Has he a right to do so?

Decision.—Yes, provided he does not touch the net. He has a right to play the ball at any time from the moment it crosses the net into his court until it touches the ground a second time.

VI. A ball is played into the net; the player on the other side, thinking that the ball is coming over, strikes at it and hits the net. Who loses the stroke?

Decision.—It is simply a question of fact for the umpire to decide. If the player touched the net while the ball was still in play he loses the stroke.

VII. Can a player follow a ball over the net with his racket, provided that he hits the ball on his own side of the net?

Decision.—Yes. The only restrictions are that he shall not volley the ball until it has crossed the net, and that he shall not touch the net or any of its supports.

VIII. A player's racket slips out of his hand and flies into the net. Does he lose the stroke for hitting the net?

Decision.—Yes, if the ball be still in play. It does not matter if the racket be in a player's hand or not.

IX. A player's racket leaves his hand, but meets the ball and returns it over the net. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes. There is no law requiring a racket to be in a player's hand when the ball is returned. It would unquestionably be a good return if the racket were held against the ground by a player's feet, and the ball bounded back off of it.

X. A single match is played with a double net and inside posts. A player touches the net beyond the inside posts, and claims that he does not lose the stroke because there should be no net more than three feet outside of the court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. The net where he touches it is part of the supports of the net. He might, perhaps, have objected to the arrangement of the net before the match.

XI. A player returns the ball, and, finding that he cannot stop himself before reaching the net, jumps over it. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Law 4 requires that "the players shall stand on opposite sides of the net," and therefore the player invading his opponent's court loses the stroke.

XII. A ball passes outside the post of the net and strikes in court. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XIII. A ball going out of court hits the top of the post of the net and bounds into the opposite court.

Decision.—It is a good return.

XIV. The service or the ball in play strikes a ball lying in the court. Can it be returned?

Decision.—Yes, if it be clear to the umpire that the right ball is returned.

XV. The server claims that the striker-out must stand in the court. Is this necessary?

Decision.—No. The striker-out can stand wherever he pleases on his own side of the net.

XVI. A bystander gets in the way of a player, who fails to return the ball. May he then claim a let?

Decision.—Yes, if, in the umpire's opinion, he was prevented by an accident beyond his control. For instance, if the ropes or the seats are allowed to be so near to the court that a player is interfered with by them, the stroke should not be played again, because the ropes and seats form part of the arrangements of the ground. If, however, a spectator passes in front of those seats, or places a chair nearer than the original line, and so interferes with a player, the stroke should be played again.

XVII. A player is interfered with as above, and the umpire directs the stroke to be played again. The server had previously served a fault. He claims the right to two services.

Decision.—The fault stands. A let does not annul a previous fault.

XVIII. A return hits the umpire, or his chair or stand, the player claims that the ball was going into court.

Decision.—Stroke is lost.

XIX. A player receiving fifteen, serves from the left court. His opponent claims a fault.

Decision.—It is a fault. The service starts from the right court under all circumstances.

XX. At fifteen-all the server by mistake serves from the left court, he wins the stroke and serves again a fault), the mistake is then discovered. Is he entitled to the previous stroke? From which court should he serve next?

Decision.—The previous stroke stands. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service, good or not, is delivered. The next service should be from the left court, the score being thirty-fifteen, and the server has served one fault.

XXI. A player serves from the wrong court, he loses the stroke, and then claims that it was a fault.

Decision.—If the stroke was played in his first service it is simply a fault, but if he serves twice into the wrong court he has served two faults, and lost the stroke.

XXII. The score is five games all, and the umpire directs the players to play an advantage set. The advantage game has been won, when it is discovered that no advantage sets are to be played. What is to be done?

Decision.—The set is won at the eleventh game. It is no part of the umpire's duty to decide on the conditions of the matches.

XXIII. A player serves. He hears the umpire call, but cannot hear what he says. He knows that the only two things that the umpire should call are "fault" and "let," and that in neither case can the ball be in play. He, therefore, does not return it, only to find that the umpire has called "play." Has he any redress?

Decision.—No.

XXIV. The umpire calls "fault," and then instantly changes and says "play." The striker-out fails to return the ball, and he claims he was prevented by the umpire, and also that the umpire cannot change his decision.

Decision.—The umpire should call a let and the service be taken again.

XXV. A ball drops near a line, the player appeals, and the umpire calls "play." The player misunderstands the call and lets the ball fall. He then claims to have the stroke played again.

Decision.—The stroke stands.

XXVI.—The ball strikes the ground close to a line, the scorer scores the stroke against the striker. On appeal to the linesman, the latter decided that the ball was not out. Which decision stands?

Decision.—The scorer has no right to consider a ball out until the linesman has called to that effect; therefore, the decision of the latter must be accepted. The decision of a linesman affecting his own line is final.

XXVII. A return strikes the cord running along the bottom of the net and bounds over. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XXVIII. During play a ball is thrown into court, and the ball in play strikes it or a player steps on it. May a let be claimed?

Decision.—Yes.

XXIX. The server's first service strikes his partner. Does he lose the stroke or is it a fault?

Decision.—A fault.

XXX. A player serves a fault and it is then discovered that it is his partner's service. Does the fault stand?

Decision—Yes.

XXXI. In a four-handed competition one player does not appear in time to play, and his partner claims to be allowed to play single-handed against the opposing pair May he do so?

Decision.—No.

UNITED STATES
NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION.

March 25, 1912

Messrs Wright & Ditson,
Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

At the meeting of this association, held in New York City, February 9, 1912, the Wright & Ditson Championship Ball was selected as the ball to be used in the National Championships of the season of 1912

Yours truly,
A. L. Hoskins,
Secretary

The Wright & Ditson Official Championship Tennis Ball

THE WRIGHT & DITSON BALL is used in all Championship Tournaments of the National Lawn Tennis Association, and has been the adopted Ball of the Association for the past twenty-five years. The Wright & Ditson Championship Tennis Ball is made according to the specifications and rules of the National Lawn Tennis Association. During the past year the Wright & Ditson Championship Ball was used in all the important tournaments throughout the United States and Canada, was up to the standard in every particular, and acknowledged by players to be the most perfect playing tennis ball in every respect.

No. O. Per dozen, $5.50

Championship Tennis Balls restricted in price to $60.00 per gross

THE WRIGHT & DITSON TENNIS RACKETS

As in former years, the WRIGHT & DITSON Rackets have shown their superiority. The Championship of the United States in both men's and women's singles were won with WRIGHT & DITSON Rackets, besides many other events, including the Eastern Singles and Doubles, Canadian, Western and Californian Championships. Such a record speaks for itself, and consequently the Ward & Wright, Pim, and Sutton Star, stand pre-eminent. We do all it is possible for any one to do to make perfect Rackets. Gut, however, is sensitive to atmospheric changes, and owners of Rackets should take all the precautions they possibly can to prevent their being exposed to dampness, keeping the Racket in a waterproof cover, and in a press. Yet, no matter how careful a player may be, the natural wear on a Racket, particularly on dirt courts, often causes the strings to give way. The expense of repairing this break (as it occurs through no defect of the Racket), should be borne by the player.

GUARANTEE

WE GUARANTEE our Rackets for thirty days from time of purchase by the consumer, and will replace or repair, free of charge, any Racket weighing 13 ounces or over if any defect appears, provided said Racket is sent to any of our stores, transportation paid, carefully tagged with the name and address of the owner, and nature of claim.

WRIGHT & DITSON.

Sutton Star
RACKET

THE National Championship has for several years been won with the Sutton Star. Many other championships in both Singles and Doubles have also been won with the Sutton Star, which proves its superiority.

This Racket has a long narrow head with a 5¼ inch handle that does not taper until nearly reaching the throat, thus giving a player the same grip when volleying or when using a short grip, as in serving or smashing. This is a distinct advantage. It also gives a much more even balance. It is strung with the very best imported gut and made in weights 14, 14½ and 15 ounces.

Price, with waterproof case. . . Each, $8.00

Davis Cup
RACKET

THIS racket is our new one and is somewhat different from other models now in use, being wider across the throat, as the frame at this point is sunken or grooved out in the center (see illustration). This gives more playing surface to the four up and down or main strings, and increases the driving power of the racket, thus helping to give the player the needed speed for the essential passing stroke, so often necessary to win a point. This racket is splendidly made and strung with our best selected gut.

Price, with waterproof case. Each, $8.00

Campbell RACKET

THE CAMPBELL RACKET in its new oval shape is a great success, and we are certain that players will find it a splendid playing racket. Strung with fine quality lambs' gut. Made in weights 12½ to 15 ounces.

Each, $5.00

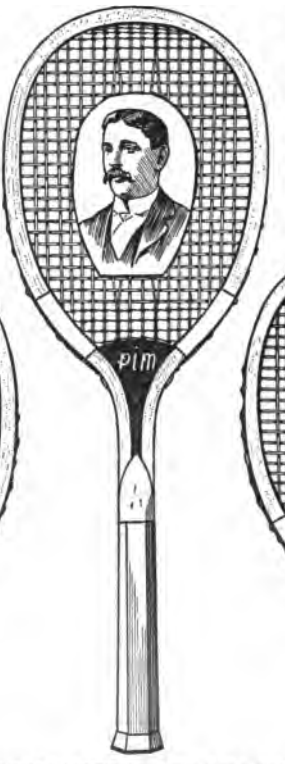
PIM RACKET

For players who like an extra large handle Pim, we have them in weights 14, 14¼, 14½, 15 ounces.



THE PIM RACKET is recognized as one of the leading rackets of the country. Nearly all players of note, both men and women, have used the Pim, from which they obtained remarkable results. The frame is made of lively ash, and is bound with light but strong tape near the throat, to give it extra strength, and which does not interfere with the natural spring in the wood. The New Pim is strung with best quality lambs' gut, noted for its driving qualities, and containing two extra strings in the center. The Pim is made only in weights ranging from 13 to 15 ounces.

With [illegible] Each $8.00

The "Combination" Racket Press and Case

Pat, Applied for

Is the most practical invention ever put on the market for the preservation of tennis rackets. As the name suggests, it is both a Press and a Case under one cover. The Case makes it practically waterproof and the Press holds the frame in shape. The Case is made of the best sole leather and is perfectly finished making an A1 article. Not only experts have these, but to the average club player who desires to keep his racket in playable condition, it is a necessity.

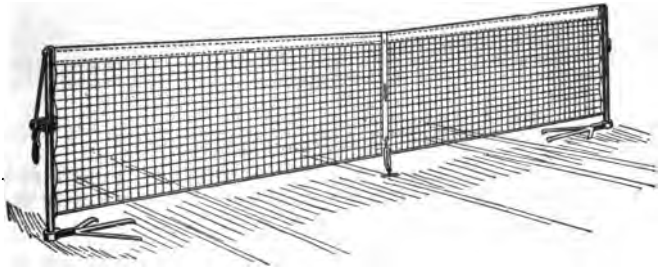
Longwood Tournament Net Posts and Nets

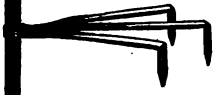
Very often the top cords and binding of tennis nets, and sometimes the reels too, are injured through improper methods of tightening. Part of the strain should always be taken off the binding, cord and reel, by lifting the net until all the slackness has been taken up by the reel.



No. 231X. Longwood Tournament Tennis Nets are made by hand from first quality 21-thread twine. Bound at top with a heavy two-inch canvas strip. Body of the net is tarred to protect it from the weather, and make it non-shrinkable, and at the same time players may see the white ball better from the other side. Fitted with a galvanized steel cable at top, to one end of which is spliced a short manila rope for convenience in fastening to reel. For double court, 42 x 3 feet. . . . . Each, $10.00

No. 230X. As above, only 33 x 3 feet, for single court, . " 9.00

Championship Canvas Center Straps (as shown in cut) are listed on next page.



The Longwood Tournament Net Posts

The Longwood Tournament Net Posts are made of iron, enameled green, fitted with a very strong reel for making the rope tight, with hooks on the side to lace the net close to the pole as shown in cut.

The anchor that goes with this post is made of one piece, with three prongs bent at the end, so that they may be driven in the ground, making the anchor absolutely rigid and secure. It is by far the neatest and strongest post ever used on a tennis court. . . . . Per pair, $20.00

The above Tennis Posts and Nets make the ideal tennis court. Neat, durable and the very best for all purposes.

NOTE.—The Posts should be set 3 feet outside the side line. 42 feet is the regulation length for a double court net, and 33 feet for a single court net.
